Are You a Poshbeads Valued Customer Cardholder?

Your application form for a card can be downloaded and submitted to Betty at Poshbeads Shop when you visit to purchase from our glass beads stock.

Beading convenience store counter service has been replaced by a discount glass bead sale with wholesale sales service for our valued customer cardholders only.

Beading Enquiries and Customer Service application forms for the DIY groups are available www.poshbeads.com

- Weekly beading group focusing on designing original bead work on Wednesday evening
- Discussion group for after sales service on your imported trash or treasure
- Beginners beading group
- Beaders designing and colour matching service
- Intermediate Beaders group for technique improvement and skills update
- Wire workers beginners group
- Advanced wireworkers group
- Jewellery photography from beginners group to specialized lighting techniques for professional shots.
- Beginners to advanced jewellery making groups for people with a jewellery metal working home workshop.
- Vulcanized mold making for PMC enthusiasts

And so on

I make no apologies for committing my time to customer service for the people who are registered cardholder friends of Poshbeads.

I cannot be all things to all people but I try hard to meet the glass bead service requirements of our loyal customers
